Psalm 118:22-24

(use the space below to jot down some thoughts and takeaways from today’s message)

“The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

*This is the Lord’s doing;
it is marvelous in our eyes.*

*This is the day that the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad in it.”*

- Psalm 118:22-24

This is the day!

NEXT STEPS

Reflect:

- How has God used the uniqueness of this Easter to teach you something new about what Jesus’ resurrection means for you and for the world?
- In what ways have you experienced Jesus as your Cornerstone in your life? In these past few weeks?
- Which part of Jesus’ victory over sin, death, and the devil is most meaningful to you?
- Have you ever been in a dark place like Luther was? What brought you out of it?

Get in the Word:

- In the Nicene Creed we confess that Jesus rose from the dead “according to the Scriptures,” just as God had always promised in His Word. Spend some time this week in these Old Testament Scriptures that foretold Christ’s resurrection:
 - Psalm 16:8-11; 22:30-31; 110:1; 118:22-24
 - Isaiah 25:7-8; 53:10
 - Jonah 1:17 (see Matthew 12:39-40)
 - Job 19:25-27

Pray:

- Pray that the resurrection of Jesus would give you life in every way as you live each day that He has made with joy and gladness.

Next week:

- We will proclaim the lordship and divinity of Jesus along with Thomas as we look at John 20:19-31.
